ROAD AWAITS STRIKE

New Haven Ready for Walk-out by Freight Clerks.

A strike of the freight clerks of the New Haven Railroad is considered likely by officials of the company.

In the event of a strike among some of the clerks, a new strike likely, said C. L. Harbo, general manager, "will proper means to perform its obligations to its loyal employees and to the shipping public."

Mr. Harbo said that on Thursday the clerks had representatives of the company who had been in conference with the freight clerks.

On that day fourteen of the differences between the clerks and the company were definitely settled. It was thought that a tentative settlement of the other two effects.

The matter thus having apparently come to a successful conclusion, Mr. Harbo was confident that the company would receive communications from the clerks' committee June 16 and 17, advising that no settlement could be made in the manner agreed upon at Monday's meeting.

New Haven officials in Boston have made preparations to fill the places of the clerks should they decide to go on strike today.
